

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

憲法の保護
一連邦憲法裁判所 75 周年記念論集
Verfassungsrechtspflege: Festschrift
75 Jahre Bundesverfassungsgericht.

Brosius-Gersdorf, Frauke / Gärditz, K. F. u. a. (Hrsg.), Verfassungsrechtspflege:
Festschrift 75 Jahre Bundesverfassungsgericht. 1200 S. 2026:5 (Mohr, GW) <766-402>

ISBN 978-3-16-200333-1

Ln. ¥52,800 (税込)

Das Gesetz über das Bundesverfassungsgericht hat im April 1951 und damit zwei Jahre nach Inkrafttreten des Grundgesetzes das Bundesverfassungsgericht als Organ der Rechtsprechung institutionalisiert. 75 Jahre später widmen die Autorinnen und Autoren dieses Bandes dem Gericht eine Festschrift aus der Mitte der Verfassungsrechtswissenschaft. Die Festschrift möchte das Gericht als Akteur des Verfassungslebens und sein Einwirken auf die Verfassungsentwicklung beschreiben und analysieren. Die Beiträge nehmen eine wissenschaftliche Beobachterperspektive ein und untersuchen, wie Entscheidungen des Gerichts hergestellt, dargestellt und kommuniziert werden, wie Verfassungsgehalte geschützt, konkretisiert und entwickelt werden und wie die nicht wenigen rechtlichen Transformationen ermöglicht, begleitet und angestoßen werden.

Inhaltsübersicht:

Entscheidungen: Herstellen - Darstellen - Kommunizieren

Christian Waldhoff: Wer entscheidet? - Thomas Kleinlein: Verfassungsrechtsprechung als transnationale Aufgabe - Sonja Heitzer: Befangenheit von Richterinnen und Richtern - Matthias Cornils: Verfassungssinterpretation - Ino Augsberg: Außerrechtliches in der Rechtsprechung des Bundesverfassungsgerichts - Heiko Sauer: Zugang zum Verfassungsrechtsschutz - Christoph Möllers: Mündliche Verhandlung - Aqilah Sandhu: Einstweilige Anordnung - Tristan Barczak: Das Bundesverfassungsgerichtsgesetz als Prozessordnung - Christian Walter: Folgen und Durchsetzung von Entscheidungen - Julian Krüper: Die Dezision bleibt unsichtbar - Roland Broemel/Gigi Deppe: Pressearbeit des Bundesverfassungsgerichts - Mehrdad Payandeh: Verfassungsgerichtsbarkeit im Verfassungsvergleich - Jens Kersten: Bundesverfassungsgerichtsforschung - Das Gericht als Beobachtungsobjekt - Stephan Rixen: Das Bundesverfassungsgericht als Verfassungsorgan

Verfassungsgehalte: Schützen - Konkretisieren - Entwickeln

Stefan Huster: Ein konkretistisches (Miss-)Verständnis? - Andreas Funke: Religion zwischen Freiheit, Grundrechtsschutz Dritter und Neutralität des Staates - Thomas Wischmeyer: Kommunikation - Franz Reimer: Pluralisierung von Ehe und Familie - Ute Sacksofsky: Was ist und wozu Schule? - Angelika Siehr: Migration - Martin Burgi: Dezentralität als Verfassungsidee: Föderalismus und Kommunen - Patrick Hilbert: Demokratische und nicht-demokratische Wahlen - Wolfgang Durner: Gute Gesetzgebung - Stefanie Schmahl: Internationale Offenheit - Johannes Saurer: Abwägung im Verfassungsstaat - Sicherheit - Margrit Seckelmann: Konstitutionalistisches Erbe im demokratischen Rechtsstaat? - Judith Froese: Institutioneller Verfassungsschutz - Markus Möstl: Verfassungstreue und personale Verfassungssicherung - Hans Michael Heinig: Wehrhafte Demokratie

Transformationen: Ermöglichen - Begleiten - Anstoßen

Dieter Gosewinkel: Das Bundesverfassungsgericht in der Geschichte der Gesellschaft - Klaus Ferdinand Gärditz: Vergangenheitsbewältigung als Daueraufgabe - Samira Akbarian: Das Bundesverfassungsgericht und die deutsche Einheit - Matthias Knauff: Umwelt- und Klimaschutz - Antje von Ungern-Sternberg: Digitaler Wandel in Staat und Gesellschaft - Laura Münkler: Pandemiebekämpfung als Herausforderung für den Verfassungsstaat - Paulina Starski: Streitkräfte - Frauke Brosius-Gersdorf: Generationengerechtigkeit und Zukunftsbewältigung - Sven Jürgensen: Parlament und Parlamentsrecht zwischen institutionellen Anforderungen und öffentlichen Erwartungen - Sebastian Unger: Demokratischer Wettbewerb - Jan Henrik Klement: Legitimationsdenken - Matthias Rossi: Staatsfinanzen als Spiegel der Strukturprinzipien - Hanno Kube: Abgaben: Systemidee als Maßstab? - Andrea Kießling: Soziale Sicherung als intertemporale Aufgabe - Thorsten Kingreen: Neues beim Allgemeinen: Grundrechtslehren und Grundrechtsdogmatik - Uwe Volkmann: Mobilisierung des Grundgesetzes: Strategische Prozessführung vor dem Bundesverfassungsgericht - Shu-Perng Hwang: Europäische Integration und Verfassung - Ferdinand Wollenschläger: Grundrechtsschutz im europäischen Staaten-, Verfassungs- und Rechtsprechungsverbund: ein Föderalisierungsschub aus Karlsruhe

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

M.イエシュテット他編 外側からの視点 一連邦憲法裁判所 75 周年記念論集

Der Blick von außen / A View From Outside: Festgabe zum 75.
Geburtstag des Bundesverfassungsgerichts / Liber Amicorum of the 75th Anniversary of the Federal Constitutional Court.

Jestaedt, Matthias / Kaiser, A.-B. u. a. (Hrsg.), Der Blick von außen / A View From Outside: Festgabe zum 75. Geburtstag des Bundesverfassungsgerichts / Liber
Amicorum of the 75th Anniversary of the Federal Constitutional Court. 800 S.
2026:5 (Mohr, GW) <766-403>
ISBN 978-3-16-200317-1 Ln. ¥40,920 (税込)

Das Bundesverfassungsgericht feiert im Jahr 2026 seinen 75. Geburtstag. Aus diesem Anlass haben Matthias Jestaedt, Anna-Bettina Kaiser, Angelika Nußberger und Andreas Voßkuhle Präsidenten und Richter von Höchstgerichten sowie Wissenschaftlerinnen und Wissenschaftler aus 42 ausländischen Jurisdiktionen eingeladen, von außen einen Blick auf das Gericht und dessen Arbeit zu werfen. Die Beiträge tragen der in den vergangenen Jahrzehnten gewachsenen internationalen Vernetzung der Höchstgerichte im Allgemeinen und des Bundesverfassungsgerichts im Besonderen Rechnung. Sie kreisen unter anderem um folgende Fragen: Wie sieht die Interaktion des Bundesverfassungsgerichts mit ausländischen Höchstgerichten und dortigen scientific communities aus? Welche Rechtsprechung findet Anklang, welche erregt Kritik? Hat sich die Wahrnehmung des Bundesverfassungsgerichts im Laufe der Zeit geändert, gab es Phasen besonders enger Zusammenarbeit und Phasen der Gleichgültigkeit oder Entfremdung? Werden Argumentationsfiguren und Rechtskonzepte übernommen - und, wenn ja, in welcher Weise? Welche Faktoren haben sich aus internationaler Perspektive als nicht anschlussfähig erwiesen? Und umgekehrt: Welche Erkenntnisse können das Bundesverfassungsgericht und die deutsche Rechtswissenschaft aus den internationalen Beobachtungen ziehen? Die in dieser Festgabe versammelten Beiträge beleuchten das internationalisierte Umfeld, in welchem das Gericht heute agiert. Darin können sie als Beispiele für die praktische Funktionsweise einer „Migration of Constitutional Ideas“ verstanden werden.

Inhaltsübersicht:

I. Afrika / Africa

José Pina-Delgado and Liriam Tiujo-Delgado (Angola, Guinea-Bissau, Kap Verde, Mozambik, São Tomé und Príncipe / Angola, Cape Verde, Guinea-Bissau, Mozambique, São Tomé and Príncipe): The Presence of the Federal Constitutional Court of Germany in Portuguese-Speaking African and Asian Countries' Constitutional Jurisdictions - Willy Mutunga (Kenia / Kenya): Temples of Justice: The German Federal Constitutional Court - James Fowkes (Südafrika / South Africa): On Whether to Walk the Long Road to Karlsruhe: A South African Perspective - Chris Maina Peter (Tansania / United Republic of Tanzania): The German Federal Constitutional Court Celebrates Its Diamond Jubilee: Some Notes from Tanzania

II. Amerika / Americas

Virgílio Afonso da Silva (Brasilien / Brazil): Deliberation als Transformation - Richard Albert (Kanada / Canada): Does Unamendability Ever Matter? - Natalia Ángel-Cabo (Kolumbien / Colombia): German Traces, Colombian Paths. The Dialogic Influence of the Bundesverfassungsgericht on Colombia's Constitutional Design and Jurisprudence - Russell A. Miller (Vereinigte Staaten von Amerika / United States of America): The Comparative Constitutional Court - Kim Lane Scheppele (Vereinigte Staaten von Amerika / United States of America): The German Federal Constitutional Court in America

III. Asien / Asia

Jahnvi Sindhu and Vikram A. Narayan (Indien / India): The Federal Constitutional Court of Germany: A View from India - Aharon Barak (Israel): An Israeli Perspective on the German Constitutional Law - Tomoaki Kurishima (Japan): Das Bundesverfassungsgericht im Spiegel einer japanischen Perspektive. Zur Rezeptionsgeschichte, zu seinen Merkmalen und institutionellen Stärken - Yoo Namseok (Korea / Republic of Korea): The Perspective of the Constitutional Court of Korea on the Federal Constitutional Court of Germany. A Constitutional Court as the Guardian and Promoter of Fundamental Rights - Ece Göztepe (Türkei / Türkiye): Eine mühsame Spurensuche: der Einfluss des Bundesverfassungsgerichts auf das türkische Recht - Shu-Perng Hwang (Taiwan): Das deutsche Bundesverfassungsgericht und die taiwanische Verfassungsentwicklung - Xie Libin (Volksrepublik China / People's Republic of China): Wissenschaftliche Rezeption der Rechtsprechung des BVerfG in China

IV. Europa / Europe

Pierre Nihoul (Belgien / Belgium): A Citizens' Court? - Madis Ernits (Estland / Estonia): The Estonian Special Path - Siofra O'Leary (Europäischer Gerichtshof für Menschenrechte / European Court of Human Rights): European Judicial Dialogue and the FCC: A Look Back to the Future - Koen Lenaerts (Gerichtshof der Europäischen Union / Court of Justice of the European Union): Enge Weggefährten: das Bundesverfassungsgericht und der Gerichtshof der Europäischen Union - Vassilios Skouris (Gerichtshof der Europäischen Union / Court of Justice of the European Union): Bundesverfassungsgericht und Gerichtshof der Europäischen Union: ein auf gegenseitiger Achtung beruhendes Verhältnis - Pauliine Koskelo (Finnland / Finland): How I See the Federal Constitutional Court of Germany: A Personal View from Finland - Aurore Gaillet (Frankreich / France): Der Blick aus Frankreich - Daria de Pretis (Italien / Italy): Das Bundesverfassungsgericht: eine italienische Perspektive - Jānis Neimanis (Lettland / Latvia): The Constitutional Court of the Republic of Latvia in Comparative Perspective with the Federal Constitutional Court of Germany - Jolita Miliuvienė (Litauen / Lithuania): German Legal Thought in Lithuanian Constitutionalism. The Impact of the Jurisprudence of the Federal Constitutional Court on Lithuanian Constitutional Development - Georges Ravarani (Luxemburg / Luxembourg): 75 Jahre Bundesverfassungsgericht - Martin Kuijer (Niederlande / The Netherlands): Better Is a Neighbour Who Is Near Than a Brother Who Is Far Away - Christoph Grabenwarter (Österreich / Austria): Das gesprächige Gericht - Jerzy Kranz (Polen / Poland): Quis custodiet ipsos custodes? Some Remarks on the 75th Anniversary of the Bundesverfassungsgericht and on Its Legacy - Mirosław Wyrzykowski (Polen / Poland): The Polish Constitutional Tribunal: From Glory to Misery - Gonçalo de Almeida Ribeiro (Portugal): A Fundamental Right to a Self-Determined Death? - Tamara Moršćakova (Russische Föderation / Russian Federation): Der Einfluss von Theorie und Rechtsprechung des Bundesverfassungsgerichts auf die Anfänge der gerichtlichen Verfassungskontrolle in Russland - Giovanni Biaggini (Schweiz / Switzerland): Wo viel Licht ist, ist auch Schatten. Vergleichende Beobachtungen zum Bundesverfassungsgericht aus schweizerischer Sicht - Cándido Conde-Pumpido Tourón (Spanien / Spain): Permeability and Constitutional Mutation - Josef Baxa (Tschechien / Czech Republic): Wenn die Morgendämmerung im Westen anbricht. Einige Anmerkungen zur Bedeutung des Bundesverfassungsgerichts für die Entwicklung der Verfassungsgerichtsbarkeit in Tschechien - Serhiy Holovaty (Ukraine): The Federal Constitutional Court and Ukrainian Constitutional Law - Pál Sonnevend (Ungarn / Hungary): Ein Fels in der Brandung. Die Orientierungswirkung des Bundesverfassungsgerichts für die Europäische Rechtsgemeinschaft - Jeff King (Vereinigtes Königreich / United Kingdom): The Influence of the Federal Constitutional Court on UK Law and Constitutional Theory

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

A.ベスト他編 20 世紀におけるイギリスの
外交・防衛政策—M.ドックリル記念論集 全 2 巻
British Foreign and Defence Policy in the Twentieth Century. 2 vols.

Johnson, Gaynor / Best, Antony (eds.), British Foreign and Defence Policy in the Twentieth Century. 2 vols. (Security, Conflict and Cooperation in the Contemporary World). 2026:5 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK)

Volume I: 1890-1939. 234 pp. <766-1264>

ISBN 978-3-032-14310-5

hard ¥34,316 (税込)

Volume II: 1940-1990. 245 pp. <766-1265>

ISBN 978-3-032-14306-8

hard ¥34,316 (税込)

A tribute to the distinguished diplomatic historian, Professor Michael Dockrill (1936-2018), this collection provides a comprehensive overview of the field of twentieth-century British foreign and defence policy. With contributions from the most esteemed academic thinkers in the field, this collection will be of great value to anyone interested in British foreign and strategic policy, whether they are a senior academic or an undergraduate researcher. In memory of the late Professor Dockrill, the essays place British foreign policy in a wide range of geographical, thematic and chronological perspectives.

Volume I examines international diplomacy in relation to the conduct of the First World War, the peace-making process that followed it, and the origins of the Second World War, mapping very closely to the interests of Professor Dockrill in the early stages of his career. Focusing on Great Power diplomacy seen through the lens of bi-lateral relations between states, the essays explore Britain's relations not only with European powers, but also with the United States and Japan. The views and operations of the British Foreign Office feature heavily, as do the lives and opinions of diplomats, primarily from the British Diplomatic Service, during the years 1890-1939. Analysing British strategic thinking around war and its consequences, this collection sheds light on the first steps in the evolution of international bodies built to preserve order around the world.

Volume II focuses on British foreign and strategic policy from the fall of France in 1940 to the end of the Cold War in Europe during the 1990s. The emphasis on the Cold War reflects Professor Dockrill's interests in the later part of his career. The chapters explore British imperial and post-colonial history, as well as the impact of race and religion on British foreign policy during the second half of the twentieth century. British relations with the United Nations are also examined through the formulation of the so-called 'Special Relationship'.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

ソーシャルワーク百科事典 Elgar Encyclopedia of Social Work.

Fouche, Christa / Beddoe, Liz (eds.), Elgar Encyclopedia of Social Work. (Elgar Encyclopedias in the Social Sciences) 400 pp. 2026:5 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-259>
ISBN 978-1-03-531022-7 hard ¥67,518 (税込)

This Encyclopedia defines the landscape of social work with over 160 research-informed entries. Drawing on analytical and reflective perspectives, it demonstrates the profession's commitment to improving societies globally.

Contributions are provided by leaders in the field, including those with expertise in indigenous and decolonial scholarship. Entries address contemporary global issues, including climate change, migration, women's reproductive rights, and the rapid adoption of artificial intelligence. The Encyclopedia also highlights emerging challenges and opportunities related to social work research, education, professional development, practice and theory.

This Encyclopedia is an essential reference for scholars, students and educators in social work. It is also highly relevant for policymakers and practitioners interested in applying social work principles to address a range of sociopolitical and environmental problems.

Key Features:

- Examines social work practice with diverse populations
- Addresses contemporary issues of human rights and social justice
- Sheds light on key dimensions of social work practice, education, professional development, research and theory

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

D.アーミティジ他編
J.ロックの政治思想－新視点
The Political Thought of John Locke:
New Perspectives.

Armitage, David / Bejan, Teresa M. / Waldmann, F. (eds.), The Political Thought of John Locke: New Perspectives. 312 pp. 2026:7 (Oxford U. Pr., UK) <766-22>
ISBN 978-0-19-896089-8 hard ¥28,234 (税込)

The Political Thought of John Locke: New Perspectives offers the most comprehensive collective overview of Locke's political thought in over fifty years. It brings together research essays by political theorists, historians of political thought, and intellectual historians to survey Locke's political writings in their immediate historical and intellectual contexts and in the longer perspective of the history of their reception up to the present. Locke's Two Treatises of Government is now one of the most widely taught texts in the canon of political theory. Discussions of this work also provide important touchstones for methodological discussions in multiple disciplines, beginning with John Dunn's seminal monograph, The Political Thought of John Locke (1969). This volume traces the long shadow of Dunn's book, while in dialogue with other interventions since. The chapters shed fresh light not only on Locke's Two Treatises (its publication, its international dimensions, and its resistance theory, for example) but also his writings on toleration, on his relationship with contemporary theology and with Thomas Hobbes, and on his contributions to the histories of liberalism, colonialism, and post-colonial theory. Taken together, they offer a timely and much-needed opportunity for conversation among historical, critical, and theoretical approaches to Locke's thought as well as stimulating resources for scholars, teachers, and advanced students concerned with Locke's political thought and with political theory more broadly.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

ホッブズの『リヴァイアサン』ー批判的案内 Hobbes's Leviathan: A Critical Guide.

Lloyd, S. A. (ed.), Hobbes's Leviathan: A Critical Guide. (Cambridge Critical Guides) 320 pp. 2026:8 (Cambridge U. Pr., UK) <766-23>

ISBN 978-1-009-46943-2

hard ¥29,155 (税込)

ISBN 978-1-009-46940-1

paper ¥9,820 (税込)

The seventeenth-century English philosopher Thomas Hobbes's Leviathan or the Matter, Forme and Power of a Commonwealth Ecclesiasticall and Civil, commonly known as Leviathan, has fascinated, alarmed, and challenged readers ever since its publication in 1651. Both a modernization of natural law theory and an early and influential contribution to social contract theory, Leviathan offers a powerful, systematic theory of the rights and duties of sovereigns and subjects, governors and citizens. This Critical Guide provides scholars, students, and anyone curious about Hobbes's political theory access to the latest research into Hobbes's views of philosophical method, human psychology, morality, law, liberty, governance, power relations, obligation, agency and responsibility, the requisites of social stability, pride, honor, theism, and organized religion. In fourteen original essays by many of today's leading Hobbes scholars, the volume provides overviews and in-depth investigations into those aspects of Hobbes's thinking in Leviathan that are of greatest interest today.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

H.P.リーダーバッハ編 和辻哲郎必携
Tetsugaku Companion to Watsuji Tetsuro.

Liederbach, Hans Peter (ed.), Tetsugaku Companion to Watsuji Tetsuro. (Tetsugaku Companions to Japanese Philosophy 8) 260 pp. 2026:4 (Springer, GW) <766-44>

ISBN 978-3-032-16981-5

hard ¥31,676 (税込)

This book offers a comprehensive overview of the philosophy of Watsuji Tetsuro (1889-1960). Watsuji was one of the leading figures in modern Japanese philosophy and is increasingly being recognized internationally. Within Watsuji's oeuvre, this book focuses on "Ningen no gaku toshite no rinrigaku" (1934), "Fudo" (1935), and "Rinrigaku" (1937-1949) as well as on other related texts.

This text is comprised of three parts and fifteen chapters. Each chapter is written by an accomplished scholar. The readers are introduced to the key concepts of Watsuji's thought: fuudo, ningen/aidagara, rinri, sonzai, and ku followed by critical appropriations of Heidegger, Kant, and Hegel. Watsuji is then situated within the broader context of the Kyoto school philosophy. Watsuji's relevance is explored over a variety of topics within and outside of philosophy such as nature, ethics, transcultural philosophy, the history of ideas, education, and environmental politics. The appendix gives the reader a sample of Watsuji's elegant style by offering a new translation of "The fundamental theory of fudo." This text arguably comprises Watsuji's philosophy in a nutshell and is meant to complement the preceding chapters. This book appeals to teachers, researchers and graduate students.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

L.L.パシネッティ著 労働価値説
A Labour Theory of Value.

Pasinetti, Luigi L., A Labour Theory of Value. 500 pp. 2026:7 (Cambridge U. Pr., UK)
<766-152>
ISBN 978-1-009-69484-1 hard ¥10,738 (税込)

Luigi L. Pasinetti was one of the most significant figures in the history of post-Keynesian economics. In his final book, he reflects on the history and future of post-Keynesian economics, as well as a broad range of issues relating to his previous work. He argues that the economics profession has reached a critical impasse, unable to grasp the true nature of the unprecedented world we now inhabit. He examines how modern economic thought has diverged from addressing real-world challenges, challenging outdated frameworks to offer, instead, a path for reflection and reorientation. With a rigorous critique of prevailing paradigms, Pasinetti proposes an alternative framework of analysis extending an invitation for economists to rethink foundational assumptions. Providing his final statement on these issues, this book delivers a compelling critique of the current state of economics and political economy and offers a vital contribution for reimagining these disciplines in extraordinary times.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

資本所得と富の集中— $r > g$ と再分配
Capital Income and Concentration of Wealth: $r > g$ and Redistribution.

Kremer, Jürgen, Capital Income and Concentration of Wealth: $r > g$ and Redistribution. (Springer Studies in Alternative Economics) 144 pp. 2026:4 (Springer, GW) <766-163>

ISBN 978-3-658-50714-5

hard ¥23,756 (税込)

What drives the long-term development of economies-and how does growth affect different segments of society?

This book redefines the theory of economic growth by moving beyond the traditional "average citizen" model. Instead, it introduces a dynamic framework that accounts for the diverse structure of real-world economies, dividing households into distinct groups based on income, consumption, and wealth.

Through rigorous modeling and analysis, the book explores how key factors-such as the economic growth rate and the return on capital-shape not only the overall trajectory of an economy but also the fortunes of its individual household groups.

It demonstrates that when the return on capital exceeds the growth rate, wealth concentration intensifies-a finding that aligns with Thomas Piketty's influential empirical research. This book will appeal to economists, policymakers, and anyone interested in the forces that shape prosperity and inequality in modern societies.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

中川淳司、浜田太郎、石川義道編
国際経済法における地政学のリスクと地経学
ーアジアの視点他

Geopolitical Risks and Geoeconomics in International Economic Law: Asian Perspectives and Beyond.

Nakagawa, Junji / Hamada, Taro / Ishikawa, Yoshimichi (eds.), Geopolitical Risks and Geoeconomics in International Economic Law: Asian Perspectives and Beyond. (Economics, Law, and Institutions in Asia Pacific) 382 pp. 2026:5 (Springer, GW) <766-218>

ISBN 978-981-9569-95-3

hard ¥44,876 (税込)

The rules-based international economic order is undergoing profound transformation. Geopolitical risk and geoeconomic strategy are no longer external shocks to a stable system; they now shape the core of international economic law (IEL), influencing trade regulation, investment protection, digital governance, and supply-chain design. Tariffs, sanctions, investment screening, data controls, and security-driven regulation have become structural features of the global economy.

This edited volume originates from the 9th Asian International Economic Law Network (AIELN) Conference, held in Tokyo in June 2025 under the theme "Geopolitical Risks and Geoeconomics in International Economic Law: Asian Perspectives and Beyond." It brings together scholars, practitioners, and policymakers to examine how IEL is responding to persistent geopolitical uncertainty and regulatory risk.

The chapters analyze how legal frameworks allocate the costs of geopolitical and regulatory risk, whether the liberal trading system is fragmenting into regional or minilateral arrangements, and how security, resilience, and sustainability are reshaping market access and investment governance. A central question is whether international economic law can adapt to these pressures without abandoning rule-based multilateralism.

Placing Asia at the center of the analysis, the volume explores whether Asian states can move beyond being objects of great-power strategies and instead act as norm entrepreneurs shaping the future of international economic law.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

東地中海の新しい地政学
ーガス、紛争、エネルギー安全保障

The New Geopolitics of the Eastern Mediterranean:
Gas, Conflict, and Energy Security.

Fouad, Khaled, The New Geopolitics of the Eastern Mediterranean: Gas, Conflict, and Energy Security. 193 pp. 2026:2 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK) <766-224>
ISBN 978-3-032-15518-4 hard ¥10,556 (税込)

This book explores the impact of the Russian-Ukrainian war on the geopolitics of the eastern Mediterranean. The European Union's efforts to dispense with Russian gas and secure gas supplies from diverse sources including the Eastern Mediterranean have motivated Israel to step up its efforts to become a major regional player in the energy sector and a major gas supplier to the Eastern Mediterranean and European markets.

The book reveals that Israel's efforts to become a major regional energy player and develop gas relations with its neighbors are driven not only by economic benefits and regional cooperation but are primarily linked to Israel's security and interests which is likely to cause increased geopolitical tensions and instability in the region.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

C.Aspalter 編 東アジアの福祉モデル

The East Asian Welfare Model:
Evaluating Welfare Politics and Outcomes from an Ideal-Typical Perspective.

Aspalter, Christian (ed.), The East Asian Welfare Model: Evaluating Welfare Politics and Outcomes from an Ideal-Typical Perspective. 295 pp. 2026:4 (Springer, GW) <766-254>

ISBN 978-981-9568-08-6

hard ¥44,876 (税込)

This book revisits after about close to 20 years the East Asian Welfare Model when looked at from an ideal-typical perspective. Ideal-typical welfare regimes do not change, in general, quickly, they are stable, due to the higher level of observation applied (using a high-flying bird's or satellite's perspective).

Twenty years, however, are a long time also in welfare state system development. A great deal of mega events and mega trends have impacted on social policy all over the world in these last two decades. These include the Covid 19 pandemic, gender movements, rock-bottom low overall fertility (in the post-industrial setting), global production shifts (a.k.a. globalization of industrial production), and last but not least technological revolution brought upon by super-digitalization and artificial intelligence applications, and information society in general, and with it technological unemployment of a large parts of a whole new generation having become unemployable while they have been highly trained at college and university levels.

It is high time to look at East Asia welfare state systems up close again, and the right theoretical and methodological lens, i.e. applying ideal-typical theory and methodology, to an otherwise not graspable fully dynamic and intertwined phenomenon: continued welfare state growth amidst crises and change.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

6 世紀のビザンツにおける金融ロビイング —ユスティニアヌスの狡猾な銀行家たち

Financial Lobbying in Sixth-Century Byzantium:
Justinian's Conniving Bankers.

Rockwell, David, Financial Lobbying in Sixth-Century Byzantium: Justinian's Conniving Bankers. (Oxford Studies in Byzantium) 400 pp. 2026:12 (Oxford U. Pr., UK) <766-1256>

ISBN 978-0-19-791467-0

hard ¥38,362 (税込)

This book is a study of the nexus between money and power in early Byzantium. Or rather, of one aspect of that nexus, namely the ways in which Constantinople's financiers (money) sought and obtained legal change from the emperor Justinian (power) in the 530s and 540s of our era. Happily, the money-men's lobbying efforts are well-attested: each of Justinian's Novel 136, Edict 9, and Edict 7 describe the petitions by the bankers' guild of Constantinople that prompted them, and his Novel 106 recounts in detail the consultations that led to Justinian's re-regulation of maritime lending. These laws offer rare insights into how the "special interests" of finance petitioned for and won favour from the imperial authority even if we know next to nothing about the individual petitioners themselves.

Gaining those insights, however, requires engagement with many complex legal issues. What did financiers ask for? Why? What strategies did they pursue? How did Justinian respond? Why did he respond as he did? Such questions are prosaic but essential for reconstructing relations between petitioning financiers and responsive emperor. Accordingly, after a brief introduction situating what follows within scholarship, the book contextualises the financiers' requests and the legislation responding to them within the wider social, economic, cultural, and political context of late antique petitioning. It then applies that contextualization to each financial Novel to reconstruct the dynamic decision-making on display by both petitioners and emperor alike. Among other things, the book contributes to long-standing scholarly disputes on dating of the sources, to our understanding of the role of bankers in the monetary economy in the period, and to a proper understanding of the relationship of Edict 7 to the Plague of Justinian. It also offers a new interpretation of the reasons for Justinian's adoption and almost immediate repeal of a new legal regime for maritime lending. This study contributes to rethinking sixth-century legislative processes, offers suggestions for the application of new methodologies to early Byzantine legal history, and suggests ways in which Justinian's financial Novels can be used to pursue other, broader lines of historical inquiry.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

古代世界における長距離交易 ーネットワークの歴史

Long-Distance Trade in the Ancient World:
A Network History.

Seland, Eivind Heldaas, Long-Distance Trade in the Ancient World: A Network History. (Palgrave Studies in Ancient Economies) (Palgrave Pivot) 136 pp. 2026:2 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK) <766-1243>
ISBN 978-3-031-90854-5

hard ¥10,556 (税込)

This book presents a novel perspective on long-distance trade in the ancient world that integrates network theory and environmental analysis into our understandings of production, movement and exchange in the so-called Long Classical Millennium (c.300 BCE - 900 BCE).

This approach departs from traditional Eurocentric perspectives that have tended to focus primarily on empires and imperial agency as the dominant analytical category, arguing instead that environmental factors played a much greater role in influencing the formation of trade routes during this period. Written in an accessible style, chapters seek to integrate and synthesise recent developments from global history, network studies, economic history and critical geography, offering new ways for scholars to examine the growth of this proto-globalised economic system. By examining the networks of people, places, animals, and things that came together in order to connect ancient Africa and Eurasia, the author de-centers any one group or region to instead foreground the environmental dynamics of ancient trade. This book will be a fascinating resource for scholars and students of ancient and global history, as well as ancient economic and environmental historians, archaeologists, and more.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

企業の ESG の実践へのグローバルな視点 A Global Perspective on Corporate ESG Practices.

Zainudin, Rozaimah / Khaw, Karren Lee-Hwei et al., A Global Perspective on Corporate ESG Practices. 199 pp. 2026:4 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK) <766-329>
ISBN 978-981-9552-54-2 hard ¥10,556 (税込)

This book provides a comprehensive examination of Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) practices across developed and emerging markets, highlighting how corporations integrate sustainability and ethical governance into business strategy. It explores the evolution of ESG principles, the frameworks that guide disclosure and accountability, and the contrasting realities between mature and developing economies. Through seven well-structured chapters, the book reviews global ESG performance trends, compares regulatory environments, and analyses best corporate practices that drive long-term value creation. It features mini-case studies on top ESG performers such as Novartis, HSBC, Tata Power, and Yili Group, offering insights into cross-sector integration of sustainability in healthcare, finance, energy, and agri-food industries. The discussion also exposes greenwashing incidents and their implications for trust and transparency. Designed for students, researchers, and industry practitioners, this book is an essential reference on corporate sustainability, responsible investment, green finance, and the future of ESG-driven business.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

戦略的経営の主要理論家案内 A Guide to Key Theories for Strategic Management.

Bisui, Sandip / Kluppel, L. M. / Leiblein, M. et al. (eds.), A Guide to Key Theories for Strategic Management. (Elgar Guides to Key Theories) 272 pp. 2026:6 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-341>
ISBN 978-1-03-534284-6 hard ¥33,759 (税込)

This seminal book brings together many of the ideas that have shaped how we think about strategy today. Across fifteen chapters, leading scholars introduce major theories from classics like the resource-based view and game theory to newer perspectives on platforms, cognition, and value capture, explaining not only what these theories say, but why they matter.

Each chapter traces how a theory developed, how it helps us understand real strategic decisions, and where unanswered questions still remain. Rather than promoting one "right" way to think about strategy, the book highlights how different theories illuminate different parts of a complex world. It is written for researchers, students, and practitioners who want to navigate the field's diverse approaches and deepen their judgment about when and how to apply them. Ultimately, this volume invites readers into an ongoing conversation about how strategy works and how our theories can continue to evolve.

This Guide will be ideal for researchers and doctoral students who want to navigate the field's diverse approaches and deepen their judgment about when and how to apply them. It will be particularly useful for doctoral seminars.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

デジタル国家における権力分立

Gewaltenteilung im digitalen Staat: Verfassungsrechtliche Maßgaben an die Digitalisierung der Dritten Gewalt.

Thomsen, Frederik, Gewaltenteilung im digitalen Staat: Verfassungsrechtliche Maßgaben an die Digitalisierung der Dritten Gewalt. (Schriften zum Recht der Digitalisierung) 320 S. 2026:3 (Mohr, GW) <766-419>
ISBN 978-3-16-200390-4 Brosch. ¥22,440 (税込)

Die Digitalisierung führt im Bereich der Rechtsprechung zu tiefgreifenden Veränderungen. Die richterliche Tätigkeit ist durch den Einsatz von Fachanwendungen und die flächendeckende Einführung der eAkte an allen Gerichten bis spätestens 1. Januar 2026 zunehmend technisch durchdrungen. Für die Organisation der Digitalisierung sind zentrale IT-Dienstleister erforderlich, die Aufgaben im Bereich der Datenhaltung und des Rechenzentrumsbetriebs erfüllen. In den meisten Ländern sind hierfür auch im Bereich der Gerichte die zentralen IT-Dienstleister der allgemeinen Verwaltung verantwortlich. Vor diesem Hintergrund ist fraglich, inwiefern derartige Organisationsmodelle mit dem Gewaltenteilungsprinzip vereinbar sind. Von zentraler Bedeutung ist der Grundsatz der organisatorischen Selbstständigkeit der Gerichte aus Art. 20 Abs. 2 S. 2 i.V.m. Art. 92 GG. Um eine unzulässige Verflechtung zwischen Gerichten und Verwaltungen zu vermeiden, legt Frederik Thomsen Mindestanforderungen für die Trennung ihrer IT-Infrastrukturen fest. Daneben birgt die Digitalisierung neue Gefahren für die nach Art. 97 GG geschützte richterliche Unabhängigkeit. Eine Gefährdung droht einerseits durch den Einsatz von Software als digitales Arbeitsmittel, insbesondere durch den Einsatz automatisierender Software sowie Anwendungen, die Methoden der künstlichen Intelligenz zur Unterstützung der richterlichen Entscheidungsfindung nutzen. Andererseits folgt eine Gefahr aus neuen Möglichkeiten des Zugriffs auf richterliche Daten. Im Anschluss entwickelt der Autor grundlegende Maßnahmen, um die richterliche Unabhängigkeit vor diesen Gefahren zu schützen. Von besonderer Bedeutung ist dabei die Kontrolle der Datenverarbeitung durch mit Richtern besetzte IT-Kontrollkommissionen.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

A.Bruns 編 デモクラシーと法
— 日独シンポジウム

Demokratie und Recht: Ein japanisch-deutsches Symposium.

Bruns, Alexander (Hrsg.), Demokratie und Recht: Ein japanisch-deutsches Symposium. (Freiburger Rechtswissenschaftliche Abhandlungen) 380 S. 2026:3 (Mohr, GW) <766-421>

ISBN 978-3-16-200015-6

Brosch. ¥23,760 (税込)

Die Beiträge des vorliegenden Bandes untersuchen die wechselseitigen Beziehungen zwischen Demokratie und Recht im japanisch-deutschen Vergleich. Ausgehend von der zentralen Rolle demokratischer Legitimation für die Akzeptanz politischer Entscheidungen analysieren sie die Bedeutung gesetzter Normen für Verwaltung, Rechtsprechung und gesellschaftliche Ordnung. Im Fokus stehen die Ausgestaltung des Demokratieprinzips und das Ineinandergreifen öffentlich-rechtlicher und zivilrechtlicher Regelungskonzepte, die den Rahmen moderner demokratischer Prozesse prägen.

Das Symposium beleuchtet historische, rechtsphilosophische und rechtstheoretische Grundlagen und zeigt, wie Deutschland und Japan trotz unterschiedlicher kultureller Entwicklungen Einflüsse aus dem angloamerikanischen Rechtskreis aufgenommen und verarbeitet haben. Die Untersuchung knüpft an frühere rechtsvergleichende Projekte an und vertieft die Analyse der rechtlichen Steuerung sozialer Prozesse. Einen besonderen Stellenwert erhält die bislang wenig erforschte Bedeutung des prozeduralen Normvollzugs in verschiedenen Rechtsgebieten für das demokratische Gemeinwesen. Zudem werden aktuelle Herausforderungen sichtbar, die sich aus Sicherheitsfragen, aus der Entwicklung zivilrechtlicher und sozialrechtlicher Strukturen sowie aus europäischen und völkerrechtlichen Kontexten ergeben. Vor dem Hintergrund weltpolitischer Veränderungen gewinnt das Thema „Demokratie und Recht“ erneut an Dringlichkeit und zeigt seine Relevanz für die Weiterentwicklung rechtsstaatlicher Ordnungen.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

太田匡彦、山本隆司、B.Grzeszick 他編 行政法における手続の視点
— 第 2 回独日行政法コロキウム

Perspektiven des Verfahrens im Verwaltungsrecht:
2. Deutsch-Japanisches Verwaltungsrechtskolloquium.

Ohta, Masahiko / Yamamoto, Ryuji / Grzeszick, B. u. a. (Hrsg.), Perspektiven des Verfahrens im Verwaltungsrecht: 2. Deutsch-Japanisches Verwaltungsrechtskolloquium. 300 S. 2026:4 (Mohr, GW) <766-506>

ISBN 978-3-16-200090-3

Brosch. ¥22,440 (税込)

Perspektiven des Verfahrens
im Verwaltungsrecht

Herausgegeben von
MASAHIKO OHTA,
RYUJI YAMAMOTO,
BERND GRZESZICK und
WOLFGANG KAHL

Mohr Siebeck

Das Deutsch-Japanische Verwaltungsrechtskolloquium institutionalisiert und verstärkt die seit Langem bestehende Verbindung zwischen der deutschen und japanischen Verwaltungsrechtswissenschaft. Das vorliegende Werk versammelt die Beiträge des 2. Deutsch-Japanischen Verwaltungsrechtskolloquiums, das zwei Jahre nach der Auftaktveranstaltung 2023 in Heidelberg im April 2025 an der Universität Tokio stattfand. Der vorliegende Band widmet sich dem Verwaltungsverfahren im Wandel unter Berücksichtigung gubernativer, administrativer und judikativer Aspekte. Neue Anforderungen an Effizienz, Transparenz und Beteiligung verändern die Struktur des Verfahrens und fordern die Rechtsordnungen beider Länder heraus. Im Einzelnen werden folgende Themen behandelt: Verwaltungsgerichtlicher Rechtsschutz zwischen subjektiver Rechtsverteidigung und objektiver Rechtskontrolle, Funktionen von Verwaltungsverfahren im Wandel, Fehler und Fehlerfolgen im Verwaltungsverfahren und administrative Funktionen der Regierung. Weiteres Augenmerk galt den aktuellen Reformdiskussionen über die Beschleunigung von Verwaltungsverfahren in Deutschland sowie über das informelle Verwaltungshandeln in Japan.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

H.グロティウス著 『戦争と平和の法』 第1巻 De jure belli ac pacis libri tres: Drei Bücher über das Recht des Kriegs und des Friedens. Band 1.

Grotius, Hugo, De jure belli ac pacis libri tres: Drei Bücher über das Recht des Kriegs und des Friedens. Band 1. Hrsg. von T. Repgen. 320 S. 2026:2 (Mohr, GW) <766-434>

ISBN 978-3-16-163392-8

Ln. ¥39,600 (税込)

Hugo Grotius (de Groot), geb. 1583 in Delft, publizierte im Jahr 1625 im Pariser Exil sein Hauptwerk De iure belli ac pacis libri tres (Drei Bücher über das Recht im Krieg und Frieden), das schlagartig ein Erfolg wurde. Grotius entwickelt darin ein auf die Vernunft begründetes Naturrechtssystem als Basis für das Zusammenleben der Völker und Staaten, deren rechtliches Verhältnis er im Grunde nach privatrechtlichen Grundsätzen deutete. Es besteht weitgehende Einigkeit darüber, dass es sich bei diesem Werk um einen klassischen Schlüsseltext der europäischen Rechtsgeschichte handelt. Der Hamburger Völkerrechtshistoriker Karl-Heinz Ziegler nannte das Buch »a concave mirror collecting the light of the past and passing on a concentrated beam to the future«. An den Universitäten der frühen Neuzeit in den Niederlanden, Deutschland und Schweden wurde das Buch im 17. und 18. Jahrhundert zur Grundlage des akademischen Unterrichts über Naturrecht.

Eine erste deutsche Übersetzung stammte von Philipp Balthasar Sinold von Schütz aus dem Jahr 1707 (mit einer Vorrede von Christian Thomasius). Es folgte eine kommentierte Übersetzung von Johann Nicolaus Serlin 1709. Julius H. von Kirchmann besorgte 1869 eine weitere deutsche Fassung. In starker Abhängigkeit von dieser Übersetzung veranstaltete Walter Schätzel 1950 eine Ausgabe. Zum 400jährigen Jubiläum erscheint hiermit erstmals eine lateinisch-deutsche Ausgabe des ersten der drei Bücher.

Band II wird voraussichtlich 2028, Band III voraussichtlich 2029 erscheinen.

★全巻購入義務での特別価格がございます。詳細はお問い合わせください。

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

欧州人権条約 第1巻:実体的権利—判例コメンタリー—

The European Convention on Human Rights.
Volume I: Substantive Rights: A Case Commentary.

Kreutzer, Gerhard, The European Convention on Human Rights. Volume I: Substantive Rights: A Case Commentary. (Elgar Commentaries in Human Rights) 848 pp. 2026:7 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-494>
ISBN 978-1-03-534896-1 hard ¥95,139 (税込)

This comprehensive Case Commentary analyses the core substantive provisions of the European Convention on Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (ECHR) through the case law of the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR). Taking an article-by-article approach, the Commentary outlines key case-law extracts, illustrating principles of interpretation and significant developments in the Court's jurisprudence. Organising the case law thematically within each article, the book provides readers with direct access to the Court's authoritative interpretation of the ECHR.

Key Features:

- Organises the ECtHR case law thematically, aligning it with the articles of the Convention
- Provides direct access to case-law extracts, allowing readers to pinpoint key arguments quickly
- Presents an exhaustive, systematic analysis of ECtHR case law with particular focus on substantive rights
- Examines the Convention as an expression of the European legal order and its underlying value system
- Synthesises 1,500+ decisions and judgments of the Strasbourg institutions, creating an invaluable research tool

The European Convention on Human Rights: Volume I, Substantive Rights is a crucial resource for legal practitioners engaged in proceedings concerning the substantive rights of the Convention. It is also a unique research tool for scholars and students of European, human rights and public international law.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

EU 反マネーロンダリング指令・規制—コメンタリー—
The EU Anti-Money Laundering Directive and Regulation: A Commentary.

Pavlidis, Georgios, The EU Anti-Money Laundering Directive and Regulation: A Commentary. (Elgar Commentaries in Transnational and EU Criminal Law) 640 pp. 2026:8 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-549>
ISBN 978-1-03-534709-4 hard ¥75,190 (税込)

This Commentary presents a structured and accessible explanation of the European Union's framework for preventing money laundering and terrorist financing. It provides detailed commentary on the Sixth Anti-Money Laundering Directive (AMLD6) and the Anti-Money Laundering Regulation (AMLR), explaining how these rules strengthen cooperation between authorities, improve transparency and hold both individuals and companies accountable.

Key Features:

- Includes forward-looking reflections on the coherence, effectiveness and future direction of the EU's AML/Countering the Financing of Terrorism framework
- Outlines the interactions between AML law and other EU instruments, including data protection, financial supervision and criminal law
- Analyses the impact of this framework on financial integrity and the rule of law, as well as how they protect the public from the misuse of the financial system

Presenting an in-depth, article-by-article analysis of the AMLD6 and AMLR, this Commentary is an essential read for regulators, policymakers, compliance officers and legal practitioners. It is also highly relevant to legal scholars and academics interested in understanding the legislative intent, legal obligations and institutional design of the AML framework.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

侵略の犯罪とロシアのウクライナ侵攻 The Crime of Aggression and Russia's Invasion of Ukraine.

Trahan, Jennifer, The Crime of Aggression and Russia's Invasion of Ukraine. 301 pp.
2026:4 (T. M. C. Asser Pr., NE) <766-635>
ISBN 978-94-6265-762-5 hard ¥42,236 (税込)

Russia's invasion of Ukraine is a crime of staggering magnitude committed against the state and the people of Ukraine. Arguing that the crime commenced with the illegal annexation of Crimea, the book centers on the need to ensure individual criminal responsibility for the crime, as pioneered at Nuremberg.

Describing the historic development of the crime of aggression, from the early peace movements of the 1800s through the agreement on the current definition of the crime, the book then details the crimes committed in Ukraine, all of which resulted from the original decision to use force. It then explains the elements of the crime of aggression and how they might potentially be proven.

Given that the International Criminal Court (ICC) cannot exercise its jurisdiction over the crime in the situation, the book next turns to the efforts to establish a special ad hoc tribunal. It traces the negotiations to create the tribunal and analyzes the tribunal statute agreed on by the Council of Europe and Ukraine. The volume concludes with a plea for the establishment of the tribunal, as well as broader jurisdiction over, and accountability for, the crime, so that it is not only selectively enforced.

The book is aimed at professionals working in law, history, and international affairs, as well as those interested in forming a crime of aggression tribunal for the situation of Ukraine and prosecuting the crime of aggression more broadly before the ICC.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

EU 公共調達改革
—2014/24/EU 指令改革の提案
Reforming EU Public Procurement: Proposals for the Reform of Directive 2014/24/EU.

Halonen, Kirsi-Maria / Janssen, Willem / Lichère, F. (eds.), Reforming EU Public Procurement: Proposals for the Reform of Directive 2014/24/EU. (European Procurement Law) 302 pp. 2026:4 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-653>
ISBN 978-1-03-536826-6 hard ¥33,759 (税込)

This innovative book explores potential amendments to the Classic EU Procurement Directive (2014/24/EU), building on the existing debate surrounding the reform of this instrument. Each chapter contains in-depth analysis on the most important and timely legal discussions in the field of procurement law and puts forward concrete ideas for ongoing reforms.

Expert contributors introduce and discuss potential reforms, examining notions that reflect on the directive's scope. Chapters focus on the importance of improving and fostering competition, highlighting the instrumental use of public procurement competition rules and analyzing the expansion of the rules on contract performance. In addition, the book explores emerging issues such as greening the EU, climate change and social injustice, among other key topics. Overall, this book serves to spur academic and policy debates in order to inform and drive future change in EU public procurement law.

Reforming EU Public Procurement is a crucial resource for students and scholars of public procurement law, European law and commercial law. Practitioners, NGOs, lobbyists, think tanks and representative bodies involved in the legislative process will benefit from the novel ideas for interpretation of legal concepts and their implementation in this book.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

EU 公共調達法における第三国の事業者

Third-Country Economic Operators in EU Public Procurement Law: Conditions for Market Participation.

Turudic, Marko, Third-Country Economic Operators in EU Public Procurement Law: Conditions for Market Participation. 256 pp. 2026:5 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-668> ISBN 978-1-03-538707-6 hard ¥30,690 (税込)

This informative book investigates the conditions in which third-country economic operators are able to participate in the EU public procurement market and analyzes how they are to be treated by contracting authorities. Marko Turudic explores the current legal landscape of EU public procurement law and its implications for competition, the rule of law, and international trade relations.

Turudic provides an in-depth evaluation of the EU's legislative instruments and international trade agreements, with a focus on market access reciprocity. Chapters examine specific examples of CJEU's judgements on third-country economic operator participation, such as the Kolin (C-652/22) and Qingdao (C-266/22) cases.

The book also explores the approaches of the Commission and the EU Member States to interpreting CJEU case-law and identifies key issues relating to current legislation on third-country market participation. The book concludes by setting out potential improvements to better facilitate third-party market participation in the future.

Written in a clear and accessible manner, this book is an invaluable resource for students and scholars in administrative, competition, international trade, and public procurement law. Its insights into EU procurement law makes this useful for policymakers and practitioners in the EU.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

H.ハインネルト他編
欧州における地方議員 全 2 巻
Municipal Councillors in Europe. 2 vols.

Heinelt, Hubert / Egner, Björn / Lysek, J. (eds.), Municipal Councillors in Europe. 2 vols. (Palgrave Studies in Sub-National Governance) 2026:4 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK)

Volume I: Profile and Roles. 289 pp. <766-718>

ISBN 978-3-032-15555-9

hard ¥36,956 (税込)

Volume II: Citizens and Government. 273 pp. <766-717>

ISBN 978-3-032-15559-7

hard ¥36,956 (税込)

As members of representative bodies at local levels of government, municipal councillors play a vital role in democratic decision-making most closely related to the daily lives of citizens. Interactions between councillors and citizens, between councillors themselves, and between councillors and their representative bodies, are therefore some of the most common features of contemporary democracy. The multiple forms these interactions take provide important insights into the different roles of local government, as well as their administrative, civic and political cultures.

Bringing together an international network of leading experts, this book is one of two volumes that examine the roles of municipal councillors in twenty-eight European countries over the last twenty years. Chapters in volume I focus on councillors' profiles and roles inside government, examining topics such as the personal and political profiles of municipal councillors, the amount of time they invest in fulfilling their mandates, and the policy objectives they prioritise. Chapters in volume II focus on councillors' interactions with citizens and their views of local government, democracy, and public service delivery. Structured thematically to allow for cross-country comparisons, the book will appeal to all those interested in European local government and public administration, as well as policymakers and practitioners.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

梅本哲也著 孤立主義に直面する
—変化する世界における日本の安全保障の探求
Confronting Isolationism: Japan's Search for Security in a Changing World.

Tetsuya, Umemoto, Confronting Isolationism: Japan's Search for Security in a Changing World. (Evidence-Based Approaches to Peace and Conflict Studies 22) 253 pp. 2026:4 (Springer, GW) <766-762>
ISBN 978-981-9570-07-2 hard ¥29,036 (税込)

This study aims to deepen the understanding of Japan's evolving national security outlook since the Cold War period to the present. It uniquely attempts to integrate debates on the interpretation of the "Peace" Constitution, viewpoints on nuclear deterrence and disarmament, and attitudes toward the "history issues" into a composite whole and relate it to Tokyo's foreign and defense policies.

Following the Cold War, Japanese policymakers sought to reformulate the core tenets of postwar security policy. Their goal was to strengthen the Japan-U.S. alliance by demonstrating a greater willingness to assume military responsibilities. This process required addressing what the book identifies as isolationist tendencies within Japanese society—tendencies that had long affected constitutional interpretations (particularly concerning the right to collective self-defense), nuclear policy debates, and discourse on Japan's prewar history.

Today, Japan's security environment appears to be undergoing another fundamental transformation. The rapid rise of China, coupled with a growing trend in the United States—exemplified by President Trump—toward economic protectionism and a diminished emphasis on alliance commitments, poses challenges to U.S. efforts to maintain a favorable balance of power in the Asia-Pacific region. In response, Tokyo may need to seriously explore alternatives to its current national security posture. By examining the successes and limitations of Japan's efforts to overcome long-standing isolationism, this book offers valuable insights into how the country might navigate its future security challenges.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

グローバル・ガバナンスと SDGs 必携

The Elgar Companion to Global Governance and the Sustainable Development Goals.

Chasek, Pamela (ed.), The Elgar Companion to Global Governance and the Sustainable Development Goals. (Elgar Companions to the Sustainable Development Goals) 336 pp. 2026:6 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-764>
ISBN 978-1-03-532084-4 hard ¥58,311 (税込)

This comprehensive book considers the interrelationship between the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and global governance. Expert contributors analyse how political uncertainty, governance practices and institutions impact the implementation of the SDGs.

The Companion evaluates the evolution of sustainable development governance since 2015. International scholars examine governance and actors at the global, regional, national and local levels through case studies from Africa, Asia, Europe and North and South America. Drawing on both academic research and practical experience in negotiating and implementing the SDGs, they assess the impacts, challenges and successes of sustainable global governance and lessons for the continuing sustainable development agenda.

This Companion is a valuable resource for students and scholars of sustainable development, politics and public policy, and global environmental politics. Its practical insights are also beneficial for practitioners and UN officials responsible for monitoring the implementation of the SDGs.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

T.ダダバエフ、園田茂人他編
オーストラリア、日本、北欧へ向かう
中央ユーラシア移民のダイナミクス

Bridges Across Borders: Dynamics of Central Eurasian Migration to Australia, Japan, and Northern Europe.

Dadabaev, Timur / Sonoda, Shigeto / Nourzhanov, K. (eds.), Bridges Across Borders: Dynamics of Central Eurasian Migration to Australia, Japan, and Northern Europe. (Politics and History in Central Asia) 280 pp. 2026:4 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK) <766-1062>
ISBN 978-981-9548-66-8 hard ¥36,956 (税込)

This volume explores emerging patterns of migration from Central Asia to underrepresented destinations such as Australia, Japan, South Korea, Nordic countries, and Tuerkiye. It critically examines diverse dimensions of mobility-labor migration, student migration, return migration, gendered experiences, diaspora activism, digital media, and host country responses-through empirically grounded and theoretically rich chapters. Drawing on in-depth case studies and fieldwork, this volume contributes to global migration studies while offering unique insights into post-Soviet identity transformations and comparative integration experiences.

It also responds to pressing contemporary concerns, including Russian migration to Central Asia post-Ukraine invasion, migration governance during COVID-19, and gender advocacy through digital platforms in authoritarian contexts. The chapters bring together voices from early-career and senior scholars, combining interdisciplinary perspectives from sociology, international relations, political science, anthropology, and media studies.

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

いじめ－若者のための政策と 予防におけるグローバルな事例研究

Bullying: Global Case Studies in Policy and Prevention for Young People.

Hong, Jun S. / Thornberg, R. / Llorent, V. J. et al. (eds.), Bullying: Global Case Studies in Policy and Prevention for Young People. 1114 pp. 2026:4 (E. Elgar, UK) <766-1148>

ISBN 978-1-03-534831-2

hard ¥23,017 (税込)

This comprehensive book provides a global overview of how bullying and peer victimization affect children and adolescents.

Organised by geographical regions, the chapters outline socio-cultural contexts of bullying in 110 countries/societies. Researchers and practitioners present anti-bullying prevention and intervention methods as well as the existence (or absence) of laws and policies to protect children and adolescents from bullying. They present detailed insights from countries/societies where research on the subject is limited and explore the concept of bullying in many non-Western countries/societies.

Bullying: Global Case Studies in Policy and Prevention for Young People is an essential resource for students and academics in education, psychology, public policy, social work and sociology. It is also a vital read for practitioners working with children and adolescents who are affected by bullying, providing crucial frameworks for tackling bullying worldwide.

Key Features:

- Brings together a global network of researchers from 110 countries and societies
- Presents cutting-edge research into the nature and impact of bullying among children and adolescents
- Investigates global anti-bullying, prevention and intervention strategies and anti-bullying laws and policies

March 2026

ご注文承り中!!

ヨーロッパ史における国境地帯 Borderlands in European History: Es- says from the Edge of the World.

Cha, Yongku, Borderlands in European History: Essays from the Edge of the World.
263 pp. 2026:4 (Palgrave Macmillan, UK) <766-1236>
ISBN 978-3-032-16942-6 hard ¥34,316 (税込)

Borders are frequently conceived as defensive lines-rigid edges of sovereignty, fortified margins, or hotspots of conflict. This book challenges that assumption. By rethinking borders not as barriers but as dynamic spaces of encounter, it redefines the very foundations of border studies as a historical discipline.

Focusing on Europe and its colonial territories across both pre-modern and modern eras, the author demonstrates how borderlands have repeatedly served as sites of exchange, negotiation, and creativity. Far from being static peripheries, these regions have produced hybrid identities, fostered transboundary solidarities, and yielded unexpected responses in moments of crisis. Through vivid historical examples, the book shows that borders often become generative centers-places where new ideas, communities, and forms of coexistence emerge.

Clear, compelling, and rigorously researched, this book offers a crucial corrective to traditional border scholarship. It urges readers to rethink how borders have operated across history, how they have shaped human lives, and why their significance endures today. In a world that witnessed the extraordinary border closures of COVID-19, this work provides a timely and necessary opportunity to reflect anew on what borders truly mean.

